

The Messenger ~ June 2015

Our Savior's Lutheran Church and School • San Clemente, California

"Inspired to Love, Encouraged to Think, and Sent to Serve"

"For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." Matthew 6:21 NRSV

I tell the story all the time about my Grandfather who when the preacher would begin to talk about money, he would lean over and say: "Here comes the sermon on the amount!" It's a good one that I still use and still brings a chuckle. I've never been uptight or embarrassed about talking about money, in fact I find it kind of fun as it often leads to discussions about even deeper things. Talking about money can reveal our fears, our priorities, a bit about our family of origin and even help to diagnose our spiritual health.

Jesus had a lot to say about money; but of all the things he said the above words from Matthew 6 always seem to be the least intuitive—but the most true. You see in our romantic world view we like to think that our money will follow our heart. Now think about all the good things that you heart would simply love to support: the poor animals who have no homes, the children who are starving, the scouts, the choirs, you alma mater, your favorite charities, your favorite ministries (including your church). Now take a look at your bank statement, how much of your treasure has followed your heart?

In Eugene Peterson's translation of the Bible he puts Matthew 6:21 this way: "It's obvious, isn't it? The place where your treasure is, is the place you will most want to be, and end up being." It's obvious. I put my treasure in my house, in my boat, in my 401K (retirement), in my cars, in my vacations, in my children. And those places where I've invested myself, those are the place in which I want to be. And there is nothing wrong with investing yourself in several places. I fully admit for the last 4 years I've invested a lot of time and energy serving as a coach at the High School. And of course here is the reality the more I invest my time, my resources, my talents into my work at the High School, well the more I want to be there, to be a part of what is going on and stay connected.

The same is true of our life here at Our Savior's. If you need an invitation, then I want to invite you. If you need a challenge, then I challenge you—to invest yourself in our mission and ministry here at OSLC. If you have a dream about doing a particular ministry, then I want you to come and invest time, talent and resources to make that happen. If you have a passion for something that we are already doing then I want you to get more involved. I want you to invest in OSLC! I want you to invest with your time, your talents and your money! If you want to know how you can invest yourself in our common ministry, just drop me an email, or come by to chat and I'll give you ten things you can do right now! (I'll give you the name of someone to visit, I'll give you a prayer concern; I'll give you a volunteer opportunity; I'll give you permission to do some painting; I'll show you where the weeds could be pulled; I'll tell you when the next Bible study will meet; I'll connect you to our school where you can: read, help with recess, be a lunch volunteer, or set up traffic cones; I'll tell you where we could use some money (I have uses for $10 to $100,000,000); I can connect you with a task group for a one time opportunity (decorating, serving, baking etc.); I can even connect you to become a missionary in a foreign country! Investors wanted!

Why? Is there some crisis? Some major shortfall or panic around the church? NO! But Jesus was right: where our treasure is, where we have invested ourselves that is where our hearts will be. And here's my confession. I want your heart for the Lord and I'm afraid that won't happen unless we follow his words from Matthew 6:21.

Peace!

Pastor Jeff

JUNE 7, 2015 ~ 9:30AM

ALL MEMBERS OF THE

CONGREGATION

Please plan to be in Worship on Sunday, June 7th for our Annual meeting.
The Annual meeting is held in between services - 9:30am SHARP.

It is June. The school year is winding down and so is the program year at Our Savior's. As we wrap up the program year, I would like to highlight some of the great work the music ministry does at Our Savior's.

- ♦ The Celebration Singers, our adult choir, has been providing beautiful choral music at Our Savior's for over 30 years. Each year we add new members. This group praises God with song at our 10:30am worship as well as special services. They are on hiatus for the summer but will resume after Rally Day in the fall. Maybe you would like to join us....
- ♦ On Sunday evenings, we gather for our "Pause" worship service with music led by Rich Kirkpatrick. "Pause" will continue through the summer. Join us at 6:00pm for worship and word throughout the summer months.
- ♦ Our very talented worship band provides music for both services throughout the program year. These faithful musicians bring their gifts each Sunday for worship services, special services and special congregational events. I really appreciate their dedication as they continue to support our worship services throughout the summer.
- ♦ We will continue to enjoy special music throughout the summer with solos, ensembles and instrumental music during our 10:30am service (10:00am in July/August)

We are so fortunate to have these wonderful musicians at our church. They share their gifts for the love of God.

*Praise the LORD! Praise God in his sanctuary; praise him in his mighty heavens! Praise him for his mighty deeds; praise him according to his excellent greatness! Praise him with trumpet sound; praise him with lute and harp! Praise him with tambourine and dance; praise him with strings and pipe! Praise him with sounding cymbals; praise him with loud clashing cymbals! Let everything that has breath praise the LORD! Praise the LORD! Psalm 150:1-6

Changes

June is here and thus ends another school year, graduates prepare for the big move to another school or perhaps the start of a new career, and parents watch misty eyed as their once-so-small kids prove again that time marches on. While we can't stop time (much as we might want to) we can embrace the changes and do whatever we can to help our children move to their new situations with as much support as possible.

To this end I would like to extend an open invitation to the youth of Our Savior's to participate in one of our youth groups. If your child is entering the 6th grade in the fall then they are welcome and invited to join our Middle School youth group on Wednesday evenings from 6:30-8pm beginning June 24. If your teen is going into the 9th grade in the fall then they are welcome to join our High School youth group which meets on Sunday evenings from 6-8pm beginning June 21st.

The Kids Club does not meet during the summer months but will resume in the fall. Kids club is open to all students in grades 3-5, but more on that later.

Recent studies have shown that involvement in a faith based youth group have enormous positive life impacts that show benefits that surpass sports and even scouting!

Friends are always welcome in our youth groups so please invite them and let's move into summer with fun, fellowship, and a good dose of the Holy Spirit!

Don't forget that we will be offering Vacation Day Camp (VDC) again this year July 27-31! VDC (not VBS) is put on by the good people at LRCC (Lutheran Retreats, Camps, and Conferences, the El Camino Pines people) and is open to kids entering grades K-6 in the Fall. This program is wonderful, LRCC sends their energetic counselors to our campus and they carry on the same programming that they do at the mountain camp. The kids love it and usually return year after year. Look for a registration form elsewhere in this newsletter.

Thank you and I can't wait to see how the groups change and grow with the new season!

Happy to serve,

Bob Cooper,

June Family Devotion:

- ⇒ F is for "FORGIVING." Even when we disobey or do something wrong, this person is willing to forgive us.
- ⇒ A is for "ATTENTIVE." When we need someone to talk to, this person is willing to listen to what we have to say.
- ⇒ T is for "TEACHER." This person teaches us the most important lessons of our life. He teaches us right from wrong. He teaches us by example how to love one another.
- ⇒ H is for "HELPFUL." This person helps us to make the important decisions we face each day. He may offer advice, or he may just be a good listener, but he is always there to help us.
- ⇒ E is for "ENERGETIC." No matter how tired he is, this person always seems to find the energy to do things with us and for us.
- ⇒ R is for "READY." This person is always ready to reach out in love to us. He is ready to do whatever we need.

Who is this person? Our father! Some of you might not have a father in your home, but you have a Heavenly Father who wants to do all of these things for you. After all, that is who earthly fathers use as an example!

Dear Lord, we thank you for our fathers. Help us this day to show our love and appreciation to our fathers and may we always remember to thank you, our heavenly Father. Amen.
