"Inspired to Love, Encouraged to Think, and Sent to Serve"

PASS IT ON: FAITH, HOPE and LOVE!

*"And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love."
1 Corinthians 13.13*

The games of the XXXI Olympiad ended last night and in a rather humorous bit, we saw a huge tunnel connecting Rio de Janeiro, Brazil with Tokyo, Japan. The two cities couldn't be farther apart, so the beloved video game character "Mario" (Developed by Nintendo in Japan) jumped into the tunnel and traveled through the center of the earth to end up in Rio and mysteriously turned into the Prime Minister of Japan. It was all in all a pretty fun gag, but meant to communicate an important truth—it was time for Rio to pass on the Olympic torch, the burden and prestige of hosting the games, and hand it over to the people of Tokyo, Japan.

It reminded me of the Olympic torch that begins in Athens and then travels across the globe to the host city. The Olympic flame is passed on, from runner to runner. The flame is held by young and old, men and women, athletic and athletically challenged as it makes its way to the opening ceremonies. The flame, the games, do not belong to any one person, any one athlete, any one organization; but are truly meant to be a gift and a call to the "youth of the world" to gather together in the spirit of goodwill and to compete at the highest level in celebration of sport.

I have never carried the Olympic torch, nor have I ever competed at such a high level of sport; but I do know something about the power of passing on something of great worth and value. For many in my generation we can remember sitting by the campfire and singing that old favorite: "It only takes a spark to get a fire going." I remember singing that song at Bible Camp. Far away from home, living in a cabin in the woods, each day would end with a Bible story and songs around the campfire. I remember listening to my counselors—mostly college students—talk about Jesus, about their faith, about what it meant to live in the grace of God's love. And just like the chorus of the song goes, I could sense that they wanted to 'pass it on!'"

But it wasn't only at camp. I can remember my mother pulling out the offering envelop from the top drawer beneath the phone. Each and every Sunday, she would right out a check, a first fruits, a proportional gift that she and my father would give back to the work of the church. In the repetition, in the faithfulness, in the consistency in hard times and good times, my parents by their actions were passing on the faith and practices of faithful discipleship.

I remember my fourth grade Sunday school teacher, an Airmen at George Air Force Base. Every Sunday he was there with a new lesson about Jesus and about the early church. The Sunday School curriculum had us studying the sending out of the disciples and he decided it would be great for us to go out on a little camping trip and see what it was like to leave the comforts of home and follow Jesus. You could tell that his desire was to pass on the faith that had been given to him.

Here's the thing: Faith is caught, not taught! And we here at Our Savior's have been called to pass on this faith we have in Jesus Christ. And we pass it on within the unique and wonderful lens of the Lutheran tradition. We have something that the world needs. We have a word from God that is not only freeing but empowering. WE NEED TO PASS THIS ON! Faith, hope and love are not meant to be things that we lock away in our hearts; but the very manifestation of Christ in all that we say and do.

We cannot be negligent in passing on the faith. Let's ask this question together: How is what we are doing passing on the faith that lives in us? How can I pass on the faith to others? How can I witness to my family, friends and community and thus let the light of Christ shine like a torch as I make my way through this life?

May we never weary of passing on the faith of Christ, Jesus! After all, it only takes a spark to get a fire going. And soon all those around can warm up to its glowing. That's how it is with God's love, once you've experienced it, you want to sing, it's fresh like spring, you want to pass it on!

Peace!

US Lutherans approve document recognizing agreement with Catholic Church

By Emily McFarlan Miller | August 15, 2016

(RNS) Nearly 500 years after Martin Luther nailed his 95 theses to the Castle Church door, the largest Lutheran denomination in the U.S. has approved a declaration recognizing “there are no longer church-dividing issues” on many points with the Roman Catholic Church.

The “Declaration on the Way” was approved 931-9 by the 2016 Evangelical Lutheran Church in America Churchwide Assembly held last week at the Ernest N. Morial Convention Center in New Orleans.

ELCA Presiding Bishop Elizabeth A. Eaton called the declaration “historic” in a statement released by the denomination following the Wednesday (Aug. 10) vote.

“Though we have not yet arrived, we have claimed that we are, in fact, on the way to unity. ... This ‘Declaration on the Way’ helps us to realize more fully our unity in Christ with our Catholic partners, but it also serves to embolden our commitment to unity with all Christians,” Eaton said.

The declaration comes as the Lutheran and Catholic churches prepare to kick off a year of celebrations to mark the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation.

Luther had touched off the Reformation on Oct. 31, 1517, when he nailed the 95 theses to the church door in Wittenberg, Germany. That document included 95 statements he wanted to debate within the Catholic Church.

Most notably, the “Declaration on the Way” includes 32 “Statements of Agreement” where Lutherans and Catholics no longer have church-dividing differences on issues of church, ministry and the Eucharist. Those statements previously had been affirmed by the U. S. Conference of Catholic Bishops’ Committee on Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs.

It also lists remaining differences between the two churches and next steps on addressing them.

Last November, Pope Francis sparked controversy when he seemed to suggest a Lutheran could receive Communion in the Catholic Church, saying “life is greater than explanations and interpretations.” The pontiff is scheduled to visit Sweden on Oct. 31 to preside at a joint service with Lutherans.

The ELCA is one of the 10 largest Protestant denominations in the U.S. with more than 3.7 million members across the 50 states and the Caribbean region.

Our fall programming is about to begin. At Our Savior's, we celebrate the start of fall with "Rally Day". This is a long standing tradition in many churches. When I looked up the noun "rally", I got the following definitions:

Meeting • Gathering • Assembly • Demonstration • Convention
Demo • March • Caucus • Public Meeting

Any of these words could define what we hope to accomplish on our "Rally Day". However, there was also a list of definitions for the verb "rally".

Unite • Assemble • Collect • Gather • Reassemble • Reconvene • Reunite
Support • Come Together • Bring Together • Call Together • Join Forces

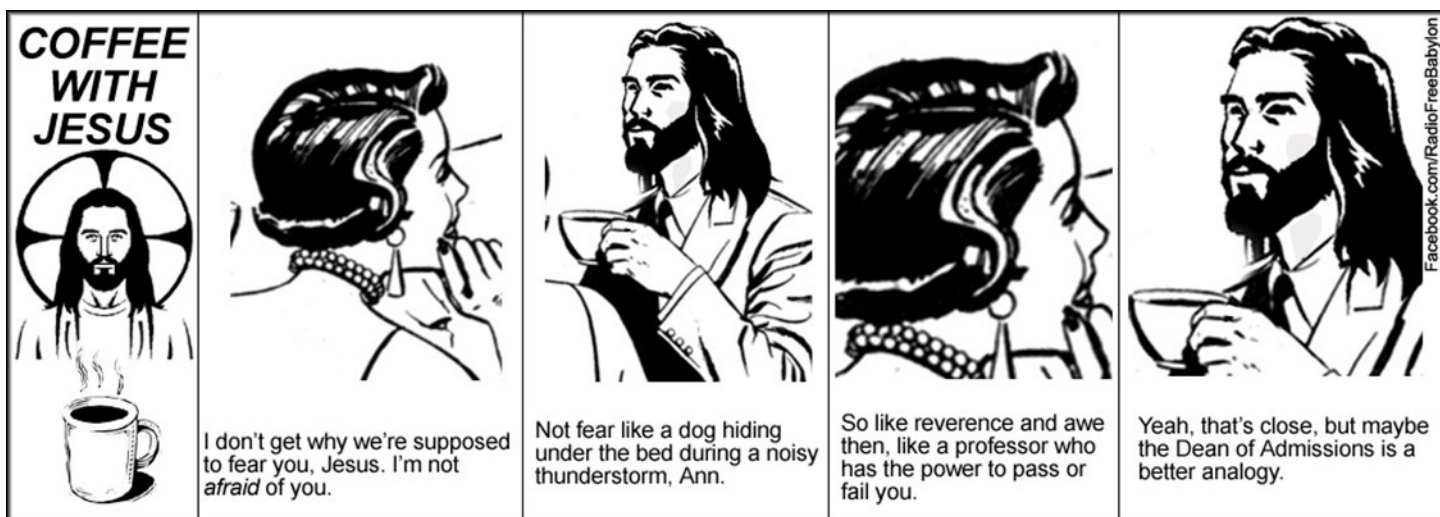

Our Savior's Lutheran Church serves as a place for me to "rally as a verb" with a family of believers who share a common love of God and a desire for serving God. As we begin September, there are many ways for us to rally together through our various congregational ministries. I will be rallying with our music ministry. However, I suspect there are many other ministries that would help me become more connected with my Our Savior's family and with God. I think I will check some of them out...

How will you rally?

Welcome Back

WOW! What a whirlwind summer, am I right? But summer is over and the wonderful fall season is upon us. I really look forward to the fall, the weather begins to cool off, the kids are back in school, and the sense of something great and exciting coming is always part of my autumn experience.

But let's not gloss over the wonderful summer that we had so quickly. In June the good folks from Lutheran Retreats, Camps, and Conferences (LRCC) joined us on our campus for Vacation Day Camp, it was a great experience of all of the young disciples involved. In July we took eleven High School students to O.C. High Ropes in Anaheim Hills for an afternoon of high ropes adventure and group bonding, it was exhausting, exciting, and really fun! At the beginning of August Our Savior's again sponsored Vacation Bible School with great success. I was allowed to share the big Bible stories in "Big Kahuna's Story Shack", it is so great to be able to share the stories of our faith with the little ones. Also in August we once again put on our bravest thrill seeking faces and headed out for "Extreme Week"! I can honestly say that this was a wonderful experience this year, the weather was great and the lines were short, everything you could ask for when visiting back-to-back-to back theme parks. The adults were quick to volunteer and the kids' behavior was exemplary, we can be very proud of them. Our usual weekly activities continued through the summer; Middle School Youth Group, High School Youth Group, Gilchrist House, and Second Saturday Food Distribution at FAM.

As we start another year of scheduled programs I invite any interested adults to help with our youth ministry, there are many ways to participate and I welcome the chance to speak with you and have a chat about how you might fit in, don't be shy.

Welcome back, Autumn

Bob Cooper
Director Youth and Children's Ministry
