“Oh Tidings of Comfort and Joy, Comfort and Joy, Oh Tidings of Comfort and Joy!”

by Pastor Jeff Frohner

We are beginning the season of Advent and it is a time of waiting, anticipating and reflecting on the presence of Christ in the world. It traditionally has been a more solemn and penitential season; that is a time when we distance ourselves from all the noise and revelry of the pre-Christmas celebration and tend to the quieter and more introspective task of taking stock of our spiritual health and wellbeing. I have always found this to be my favorite season in the church year. Advent reminds us that it is not yet Christmas and that we have things to do before the arrival of Jesus!

However Advent does not need to be devoid of joy! In fact this year at worship our Advent theme is “Oh tidings of comfort and joy!” We are not naïve to the status of the world, nor to our own need for repentance and growth, nevertheless we are not to neglect the Good News (tidings) of comfort and joy that come to us through almighty God. Ours is a God who shines light in the darkness, who walks beside those who are facing trials of any kind, who provides the strength we need to move forward in our journey with a hope and expectation that God in Jesus Christ will not forsake us.

This doesn't mean that we'll get our way. It doesn't mean that we'll avoid hardships and adversities but it does mean that we can navigate our way through such things with comfort and joy. That is the promise of God's presence which is what will be manifest and celebrated once again on Christmas Eve. God is here! God is present! And God brings good tidings of comfort and joy!

So how shall we bring joy into our Advent waiting? Come to worship and you'll see what we have in mind for the kids---let's just say it'll be a 'Joyful noise unto the Lord!' (Psalm 100). I also want to suggest that we can use this time of Advent (4 weeks before Christmas) to cultivate joy in ourselves by creating new habits that help us to intentionally receive and share the tidings of comfort and joy that come to us in Jesus. I borrowed this list from Delmer Chilton's Lectionary Blog from November of 2003. Following his lead I want to invite you to not only experience the joy; but to be the source of joy for others as well. Why not:

1. Take five minutes every morning and make a Christmas list. Not a list of things to buy, or things to do, or things you want but a list of blessings in your life, a list of people you love and who love you in spite of yourself, a list of the signs of God's presence in your life. After you've made your list, pray a prayer of thanks for each thing on the list
2. Take another 10 minutes and read a chapter of the Gospel of Matthew. There are 24 days until Christmas and 28 chapters in Matthew, so you should be able to finish it. By Christmas morning, we will be reminded of why Jesus came and of what he did for us. By Christmas morning, we will be ready to celebrate with thankfulness and praise the coming of the Messiah, Emmanuel, God with us.
3. Pick out five names from your Christmas card list. Pick out five people that you have almost lost touch with, five people you seldom see or speak to. Call them up or write them a personal letter or send them an email and tell them how much they mean to you and why. Thank them for being a sign of God's presence and love in your life.
4. Perform a totally new act of charity this year. Reach out and surprise someone with the unexpected love of God. Give a part of yourself to someone in gratitude for the fact that Christ gave himself for you.
5. And finally, spend the last five minutes of every day asking God to come into your life in a fresh, new, unpredictable way this year and to fill you with comfort and joy.

May this time of Advent waiting remind us of the one in who joy springs forth even unto eternal life!

Peace,

Pastor Jeff

What is "Blue Christmas"? The holidays, while joyous, can also be a challenging time for anyone who has suffered the loss of someone they loved, or other kinds of sadness or hurt. For this reason, our community now offers a "Blue Christmas." This service of comfort is a way we can recognize the hope of this season, while we also acknowledge those sad feelings within, or remember those who are in our hearts by remembering them in a meaningful way. By doing so, we can all celebrate more fully together!

CHURCH COUNCIL NOTES

The church council met on November 14, 2017.

- The Baptismal Sunday was a blessed day and was a wonderful way to outreach to our faith community.
- The Brats Sunday was also very successful! It brought both services together and the food was delicious. We discussed making these two events an annual tradition!
- Bob Oakley is Captain of the Steward Ship. This voyage is well underway and packets are coming in. These responses help us to create a budget so it really is important to fill out the cards.
- Karen Coffee is working on updating our website. More to come!
- Hallie Stohler heads up Social Concerns and this committee is very active in local and world outreach. They always welcome anyone who wants to come to the meetings with ideas or just want to check it out.
- Bruce Quade is our treasurer. If you have ANY questions regarding the financial situation of the church or school, please ask Bruce. I have found that Bruce is very good at explaining financials on a "beginners" level.
- Kim Lindholm heads up Worship and Celebration. She will be looking for help Saturday, 12/2 at 9:00am, Sunday, 12/10, Wed. 12/13 and Wed 12/20 to decorate the Sanctuary. This is a fun opportunity for everyone. Emails will be sent out regarding these dates.
- Chuck Pridham is our Buildings and Grounds guy. He will be doing a lot of sprucing up, ie painting trim and woodwork, planting grass, replacing lights, etc. If you like to do handy-work please contact Chuck.
- Roberta is heading up Fellowship and the weekly OWLS walk on Tuesdays at 8am. There is our Annual Christmas Dinner on 12/7 at Wedgewood.

Please call the church office if you have any questions or need the emails of any council members to participate on their committees. Everyone is welcome. You don't need to be a member to be on a committee, decorate, paint, bring ideas or even pray for this church and school!

Blessings,
M'Liz Kelly ~ Secretary

A popular Christmas song tells us:

*It's the most wonderful time of the year
With the kids jingle belling
And everyone telling you be of good cheer
It's the most wonderful time of the year*

Is it???

Here is a perhaps more realistic version:

*There'll be crowds in the mall,
lines at the gas stations
And too many parties.
And tired, cranky children and holiday traffic
And last minute shopping.*

Don't get me wrong –I LOVE this time of year.
But, I have learned that I need to focus on what is REALLY important this time of year. I recently saw something on Facebook that I would like to share:

Holiday "To Do" List

1. ~~Buy~~ Be Present
2. Wrap gifts someone in a hug
3. Send ~~gifts~~ Peace
4. ~~Shop for~~ Donate Food
5. Make ~~cookies~~ Love
6. See Be the light

Here's a start to that list:

COFFEE WITH JESUS

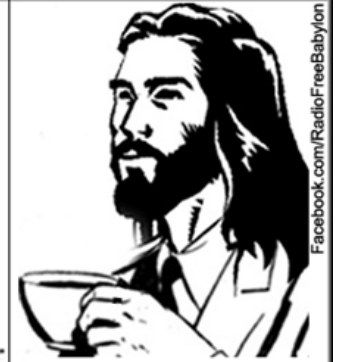

It's that time of year when we all make our top ten lists, Jesus. So, let's hear one from you. Give us your top ten most important events of 2011.

Well, number ten would have to be when this little girl in the rural reaches of Jilin Province in China gave her last apple to a very hungry old woman.

Yeah - that's not really how this works, Jesus. You pick a world story or maybe a celebrity screw-up. Like Iran or Charlie Sheen.

You've got your important events, Kevin, I've got mine. Number nine: a single mother of three in Mexico adopted the daughter of her dying neighbor.

Youth and Children's Ministry

by Bob Cooper - Director of Youth and Children's Ministry

Happy Holidays and Merry X-Mas

Welcome to December, before we get into the Christmas stuff; let's take a look at what's been going on with the youth. The week before Thanksgiving a group of our middle school youth attended the annual Synod Middle School Youth Gathering at the Sheraton Park Resort in Anaheim. This weekend of faith and fellowship was driven by its theme "Instagood", a take-off on the social media app "Instagram" and how we can use social media to spread the love of Christ. The trip to Disneyland didn't hurt anything either. But it's not all internet and group texts, we also get into the spirit of giving; some of the youth families will be going to the "Cotton's Point" senior living facility to sing some Christmas carols and decorate cookies with the residents, what a nice way to get to know our neighbors!

Our High School youth have a wonderful (yet exhausting) tradition of their own, we will again join our partner congregations for the annual "All Nighter", a night of fun and faith that includes fun and games, stories of faith, middle of the night devotions, broom hockey at 3am, and a pre-dawn breakfast as the kids struggle to stay awake, for THIS night owl it is a blast!

The youth are not only involved in the faith, fun, and games of youth ministry, they also put their faith into action serving others. During December we will be serving at the second Saturday food distribution at the F.A.M. facility as well as assisting the social concerns ministry with the Welcome Inn. The 7th Grade confirmation students will be helping serve breakfast at the Third Avenue Charitable Organization (T.A.C.O.) in San Diego at the end of the month.

Let's not forget that the Youth and Family Ministry also shares a meal each month at the Gilchrist House (run by FAM), a transitional shelter for women and women with children as well as a new outreach home for families (the FAMily House) that are in need of shelter, we are honored to be part of these worthwhile ministries.

Now on to Advent and Christmas, it is once again the season of Advent and with it comes all of the joy and festivities that this wonderful season promises. But before things get rolling and the yearly struggle of "Merry Christmas" vs. "Happy Holidays" or even "Merry X-mas" ensues, I want to state publicly that I'm OK with any genuine greeting of peace and love this season. Sometimes it seems that we are so quick to be offended (and I have been guilty of this myself) that we overlook the fact that the word "Holiday" is simply an old English word that stands for Holy Day, seems like an appropriate salutation to me. As for Merry X-mas, etiquette advice from the late 1940s indicated that X-mas should never be used in a greeting card as it was seen as a way of removing Christ from the greeting, how wrong they were, you see "X" in the ancient Greek represents the letter "Chi" or the first letter in the title "Christ". So wishing someone Merry X-mas or Happy Holidays is really just a very old school way of remembering that "God so loved the world that He sent his only son..."

I hope the peace and hope of the holidays surround you and your family as we celebrate the arrival of the "King of Kings"

Peace to All,

Bob Cooper

ALTERNATIVE GIFT GIVING: I GOT YOUR GOAT!!

(or your pig, or your seedlings, or your farming tools)

Through The Lutheran World Federation you can give a Christmas gift that will change the world! You can give a family a goat, or a pig, or some farming equipment, or even playground equipment for the children!

Each Gift is part of actual Lutheran World Relief programming. The dollar amounts listed for each Gift represent the cost of providing the items and/or support services or training. Each Gift you make is symbolic and represents a contribution to the entire mission of LWR, to be used where the need is greatest.

No matter which Gift you choose, your donation supports LWR's life-changing mission to end poverty, injustice and human suffering, and as such is tax-deductible. After making your gift, you'll receive a tax receipt in the mail.

Honor a loved one or friend with an LWR Gift: LWR Gifts makes giving good easy! After you choose a Gift, you have the option to send an e-card, print your card at home or have us mail it to you.
